

DEER PARK
INSTITUTE

INSIGHT

Part Three

Photography Workshop

Led by renowned photographer
Nrupen Madhvani

“We do not see things as they are.
We see things the way we are.”
Talmud

Join us for five days.

Discover your 'self' with Nrupen's interactive photography workshop.

Please bring your own digital camera if you have one. If not, we will try to find a camera for you to share in the class.

Please register at Deer Park office before 25th of March

Nrupen Madhvani is a commercial and conceptual photographer who works with leading advertising agencies and magazines.

He has also worked in Japan and received awards from the Advertising Club, the Commercial Artists Guild, the International Pegasus Awards, Luerzer's, etc.

Nrupen is continuously exploring the immense possibilities of the visual arts, including filmmaking. He has directed documentary and short films which have been screened at various national and international film festivals.

Date: 18th-22nd April, 2014
Time: 2pm to 6pm
Venue: Deer Park Institute, Bir
Only 15 seats are available.

Costs- Rs. 4000
(incl. of board-lodging and workshop fees)

Limited scholarships available

Email: info@deerpark.in

These photography workshops are part of Himalayan Film School, Deer Park Institute, Bir.